

April 8, 2019

Dear Parent(s) or Guardian (s):

Your child will be having a guest speaker from the Sexual Assault Crisis Center during the month of April. The presentations will take place on April 18th; the schedule is listed below.

The presenter will talk briefly with the children about protective behaviors. The presentation will last about 20 minutes.

The presentation will include discussion on such things as safe and unsafe touches as well as a discussion about secrets and the importance of sharing secrets that make the child feel uncomfortable with their parents or trusted adult. Further, the children will identify who safe adults are for them that they can go to if they ever need help or they get lost.

If you have any further questions, please contact your child's classroom teacher.

Thank you,

Mrs. Alft
